Help Incorporated: Center Against Violence Announcement
Run for the Roses Kentucky Derby Event

Churchill Downs, Inc. announced earlier this week that the 146th running of the Kentucky Derby will move to Saturday, September 5, 2020 due to the ongoing and fluid COVID19 pandemic. Help Incorporated: Center Against Violence is following suit. The agency's 11th annual Kentucky Derby-themed "Run for the Roses" event will still be held at the Wright Memorial Event Center in Eden. The Derby Committee has been scrambling to get the information out as soon as possible, so fans can make arrangements to attend this amazing fundraiser for survivors of violence. It's tradition in Rockingham County, NC, like it's tradition in Louisville, Kentucky.

The agency would like to thank the committed 2020 sponsors of "Run for the Roses," and assure you that monies will be used as pledged for the September event. Feel free to contact our office with any questions or concerns: (336) 342-3331.

If you have already purchased your tickets for the event, they will be honored on the new date. Please save September 5th for the "Run for the Roses" extravaganza. Additional tickets can be purchased online.
